

International Visitors Attend '89 Grand National

The Western Grand National in Tulsa, OK had an international flavor with several foreign visitors in attendance. Here, MCA National President Charles Hampton welcomes John Manners of Switzerland and Russ and Deni Odum of Largs Bay, South Australia to the Oklahoma show. Manners was the organizer of the 1989 American Pony Drive. Russ and Deni are members of the Mustang Owners Club of Australia and own a Grabber Blue 1970 Mach I.

1970 Mustang Fastback On Block At Kruse Event

More than 400 quality collector cars will cross the block Oct. 28-29 during the sixth annual Ozarks Auto Show Museum Auction at Shephard of the Hills Farm in Branson, Mo.

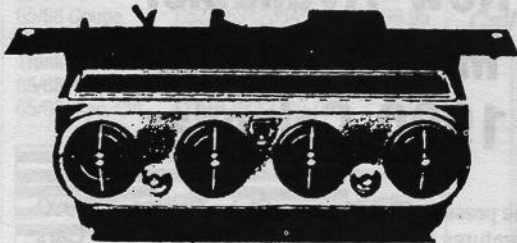

Kruse International, based in Auburn, IN, and Mark Trimble, of Ozarks Auto Show in Branson, have teamed up to present the annual auction, which begins at 10 a.m. daily.

This years lineup includes a 1988 Lamborghini Countach, 1940 Packard Eight station wagon, 1934 Pierce Arrow two-door sedan, and a number of muscle cars including a 1970 Ford Mustang fastback, 1969 Ford Mach I coupe and a 1964 Plymouth Fury 426 wedge-head convertible.

"Early indications show that Branson '89 should be the best sale yet out of our annual events," said Trimble. "We've had more interest at this point in the year than we've ever had before."

Vehicles will arrive for check-in Oct. 27 from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. The public can enjoy auction entries displayed at the Mart throughout the weekend.

Saleen Autosport Unveils 'California Edition' GT

Saleen Autosport, in conjunction with Ford Motor Company's San Jose District Office, recently showcased the Saleen Autosport "California Edition" Mustang GT at Sears Point International Raceway in Sonoma, CA.

The occasion was the Motorcraft NHRA Nationals held July 29-30. The 50 specially prepared dealer drive-away GT's were complete with Racecraft Suspension featuring Monroe Formula GP Shocks and Struts, customized American racing wheels and General XP 2000V high performance tires.

Steve Saleen made a personal appearance Sunday, signing autographs and meeting the local Ford dealers invited to the gathering.
