

Gulf Coast Club Offers '70 Mach I As Show Prize

This 1970 Mach I with a 351 Cleveland will be the raffle prize at the season-opening Pensacola National Mustang Show this month. The Wimbledon white Pony with black interior has automatic transmission, power steering and air conditioning. It will be given away March 26 in Pensacola when the Gulf Coast Mustang Club holds the first MCA national show of 1989. Show headquarters is University Mall in Pensacola. More than 1,000 Mustang enthusiasts are expected to attend the hospitality party and fish fry at the Holiday Inn March 24 to kick off the busy 1989 MCA show season. For additional information on the Pensacola Show, contact Sonja Blackwood at (904) 476-2587.
