

July's Cover Car Has A New Owner

David Mordecia's Lime Gold 1967 convertible, which was featured in the July issue of The Mustang Times, is now in the possession of Ray Hamilton of Oak Brook, IL.

Mordecia, who won more than 60 trophies with the convertible at local and national shows during the past few years, is show at the left handing the keys to Hamilton, who has now transported the car from Oklahoma to Illinois.

David, who purchased the car in 1984, recently sold the Mustang after nearly six years of competition.

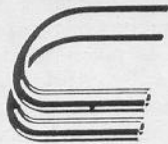

He is now in the process of restoring a 1966, which he hopes to have ready for the show circuit next year.

Mordecia, a teacher and football coach from Henryetta, OK, is an active member of the Green Country Classic Mustang Club of Tulsa. His Lime Gold Mustang won first place at the MCA Grand National in Tulsa last year.

Hamilton, a long time MCA member, expects to continue the long string of victories piled up by the '67 convertible at MCA shows in the East and South next year.
