

Australian Mustangers Hold National Concours

The picturesque South Australian tourist town of Handorf was the setting for the 1990 Mustang Owners Club of Australia National Concours. South Australia was the host state for the annual event which attracts Mustang enthusiasts from throughout the country.

For the 1990 National Concours, more than 90 Mustangs assembled in Handorf.

Most of the participants arrived on Friday and were greeted by bleak weather conditions. The Hochstef Motel was headquarters for the show. Rains kept most of the participants indoors Friday, but Saturday morning brought better weather as owners began preparing their cars for Sunday's judging.

The motel reception center was the site of a banquet and novelty auction Saturday evening.

Judging for the national event began Sunday and a Presentation Dinner was held Sunday evening with trophies awarded in a variety of categories.

Winners in the 1990 Australian National Concours included:

Stock Non-Restored: First, John and Pauline Binge, 1971 Mach I; Second, Tom and Bev Breton, 1973 convertible; Third, Frank and Sue Hayes, 1971 Mach I.
