Mustangs Flock To The Land Of Oz!

The first-ever MCA National Show held in Kansas City drew one of the largest fields of the season to the "Land of Oz," where more than 175 Pony lovers competed for trophies in late July.

Sponsored by the Vintage Mustang Club of Kansas City, the Midwest National Show attracted one of the finest fields of classic Mustangs in recent memory. And, despite a late afternoon shower that came just as judging was completed, the event was an unqualified success for participants and spectators alike.

For complete coverage of this MCA National event, see Pages 13-18 of this issue of your Mustang Times.
