

First Pennsylvania Mustangs Claim Car Show Trophies

Several members of the First Pennsylvania Regional Group Mustang Club have won awards at various events held during the past few months.

Bill and Carol Kish and Dave and Brenda Zimmerman both won First Preservation Awards at the Antique Automobile Club of America show held in Butler, PA. Cliff and Barb Zimmerman also won a Senior Award at the event.

Fourteen members of the First Pennsylvania Group came home with trophies following the Cooperburg Summerfest. Winners in that event included:

First place trophies: Steve Fleischman, Dave Newman and Diane Michaud.

Second place trophies: Scott Whitson, Bill Gadd, Fred Glazier and Bob Simmons.

Third place trophies: Carl Schueller, Bruce Peters, Ginny Harze and Hugh Harris.

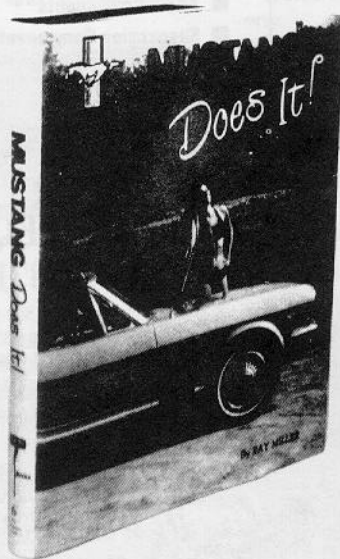

Fourth place trophies: Dale Bowes, Keith Herman and Rick Heintzelman.

Dave Newman won a second place trophy at the New Hope Auto Show and Bill and Christianne Gadd won a second place at the Firemont Fire Company's Lansdale, PA show.

Santa Trades Sleigh For 1965 Mustang!

Rudolph and his friends can take this Christmas Eve off. Santa has traded his sleigh for a red 1965 Mustang convertible and will be delivering this holiday season's gifts in style! The Pony car highlights the front of a new Mustang Christmas card which carries an inside inscription: "Best wishes for a classic Holiday Season." This is the first time these Christmas cards have been offered. The price for a set of 20 cards with envelopes is $15, plus $2 shipping (US). Order your holiday greeting cards from Mustang Classic Collections, 7138 Maddox Road, Lithonia, GA 30058 or phone (404) 482-9219.
