

Video Producer Offers Tape On Carroll Shelby

The producers of the TV series "Wild About Wheels," which airs on The Discovery Channel, have announced the availability of two videos of interest to Mustang enthusiasts.

"Carroll Shelby: An Interview With The Snake," is a 60 minute session with the legendary auto maker. The tape retails for $34.95 and may be ordered from Global Television Network's catalog.

The company also offers "Mustangs in Motion," a video dedicated to the famous Pony car.

Mustang lovers interested in either of the company's tapes can contact Global Television Network at (508) 264-9921.

Pony Doctor Introduces Tonneau Cover

The Pony Doctor of Pompano Beach, FL has announced a new sports roadster Tonneau cover and a front valance panel with built-in fog lights for early model Mustangs. The Tonneau cover will fit 1964½-68 convertibles and comes with headrests mounted on with screws. The cover is made of fiberglass. The front valance panel duplicates the front panel that Ford used on the "007" prototype car in 1965. It is made of light-weight fiberglass and takes the standard 1965 fog light assembly, as well as the standard turn signals. For information contact The Pony Doctor at (305) 786-1965.
