

MCA's 16 Year History Is Interesting Reading

The publication of the lengthy rules corrections and clarifications approved at last September's MCA Judges' Meeting forced us to delay the introduction of a new feature, "MCA Notebook," last month.

But we're back on track now and you'll find this two-page article in your February Mustang Times.

It's an interesting summary of the 16 year history of MCA, compiled by Mustang Times staffers Steve McMullan and Kitty Wilmot.

I know many of our newer members will find this interesting reading, and I think some of our long-time members will as well.

We plan to use "MCA Notebook" to inform our readers about a number of topics related to the national organization — articles from how to become a Certified or Gold Card judge to how a regional group can plan, apply for and stage a National or Grand National show.

I hope you'll take time to read MCA Notebook this month.

And speaking of history, we're also planning to take you back a few years with a feature on the early issues of The Mustang Times.

Some of our new members might not know it, but The Times has been published by MCA since the club's second year of existence. My son, Ken, has the only complete collection of Mustang Times issues that I know of, and we're going to reproduce some excerpts from these early issues to give you an idea of where we started — and how far we've come.

I hope you'll be watching for this interesting feature this coming spring.

If you enjoy reading Mustang Times, you might even enjoy it more if you saw your own Mustang featured!

We welcome contributions from our readers. If you have a clear snapshot of your favorite Pony, send it in — along with an owner's information sheet (published quarterly) — and we'll be glad to consider it for our monthly "Horse Show" page.

If there's an interesting story behind your car, we invite you to sit down and write it out in your own words and mail it in, along with three to six photos. If the story is interesting and unusual enough, it could very well be selected as one of our monthly "Feature Cars."

While the weather's still too cold to go out for a spin with the top down you might spend a few minutes writing us and providing some details about your own Mustang.

We look forward to hearing from you!
