

'93 Show Season Continues In Fairview Heights

The Shiloh Valley Mustang Club will host the fourth MCA National of 1993 July 16-17 at Longacre Park in the St. Louis suburb of Fairview Heights, MO.

Early tech inspection will begin Friday, July 16, at Longacre Park. Tech inspection and registration will continue at 7 a.m. Saturday and judging is expected to start at noon that day.

An awards ceremony is planned for Saturday evening.

Members of the Shiloh Valley Mustang Club note that in addition to the car show and swap meet, the park offers a wide range of activities, including walking paths, volleyball courts, softball diamonds, tennis courts, a playground, horseshoes and picnic pavilions. Show sponsors urge Mustangers attending to bring their own sporting equipment and take advantage of the park's facilities.

Transportation will also be provided throughout the day between Longacre Park and area motels, shopping malls and restaurants. Overnight security will be provided at the show site Friday.

Accommodations for the Fairview Heights show are available by calling Ramada Inn reservations at (618) 632-4747.

For additional information on Fairview '93, contact show chairman Bob Stone at (618) 277-6838. A registration form for the show appears in this issue of Mustang Times.

The 1993 MCA Grand National will be held Labor Day Weekend in Greenville, SC. The Foothills Mustang Club will host that event.

The show will be held on the campus of Greenville Tech at I-85 and Augusta Road (Exit 45).

Registration and tech inspection will open at 2 p.m. Friday and close promptly at 10 a.m. Saturday.

A free hospitality party with live entertainment and barbecue will be held Friday night.

Registration for the Grand National is $20 per car before August 1 and $25 per car thereafter. Non-MCA members must add $10 to the registration fee.

Vendor spaces (10-by-20 feet) are available for $20. Pony corral spaces are also available for $20 each.

Holiday Inn I-85 will be the host hotel for the Grand National. For reservations call (803) 277-8921. Mention MCA for a special rate of $45 per night.

Judging will begin Saturday morning and trophies will be awarded Sunday afternoon. A registration form for the '93 Grand National is included in this issue of The Mustang Times.

For additional information contact Bill Collins at (803) 878-3698 or Nancy Owens at (803) 834-8937.

The final show of the MCA season will be held in Oak Ridge, TN and hosted by the Tennessee Valley Mustang Club.

Registration, vendor set up and tech inspection will begin at 10 a.m. October 1 and continue until 5:30 p.m. Registration and tech inspection will resume Saturday morning and close at noon.

A hospitality party will be held Friday evening. Trophies will be awarded in all classes. Pre-registration discounts are available until Sept. 1.

Proceeds from the Oak Ridge Show's prize car, a 1965 Mustang coupe, will benefit the Dream Connection, an organization granting last wishes to terminally ill children. For more information on the Oak Ridge MCA National, contact Bill Vermillion at (615) 376-4225 or Jim Reynolds at (615) 482-3116.

Promotional Car Feature Delayed Until Next Issue

A planned feature on dealer promotional cars, scheduled for the July issue of Mustang Times, has been delayed until August.

Space considerations for the July issue forced the decision to move the feature to the August issue.

Look for this feature in next month's magazine.
