

Foothills Mustang Club To Host Grand National

It's Grand National time!
The Mustang Club of America's 1993 Grand National will be held in Greenville, SC September 3-5 as the current show season hits the home stretch.

The Foothills Mustang Club of Greenville will host the '93 Grand National, which will be held on the campus of Greenville Tech, I-85 at Augusta Road (Exit 45). Follow Highway 291 North 1.2 miles to reach the Greenville Tech campus.

Registration for the Grand National will begin at the show site at 2 p.m. Friday, and Foothills Mustang Club members encourage early registration for this three-day event.

The host group will sponsor a free hospitality party with live entertainment and barbecue Friday evening.

Registration will continue Saturday morning and close promptly at 10 a.m. on that day.

The host hotel for the event is Holiday Inn I-85 at I-85 and Augusta Road in Greenville.

Judging of the show cars will take place on Saturday and Sunday and trophies will be presented Sunday afternoon.

MCA rules and classes will apply to all judged cars.

The Foothills Mustang Club is giving away a 1983 Mustang LX 5.0 convertible as its prize car. Tickets are $1 each or six for $5. Proceeds will benefit the Meals on Wheels program in Greenville.

A registration form for the Greenville Grand National appears in this issue of The Mustang Times.

The Grand National is the next to last event of the 1993 MCA show season.

The final MCA National of 1993 will be hosted by the Tennessee Valley Mustang Club and held in Oak Ridge, TN October 1-3.

Registration, vendor set-up and tech inspection will begin for that show at 10 a.m. October 1 and close at 5 p.m. Registration will resume at 7 a.m. October 2.
