

Why the good ol' days
really were good...

The Mustang... everything it was and more.

Sure the new Mustangs are cool. But everybody knows the standard for Mustang-cool was set 30 years ago. Was a '65 Mustang your first car? Did it have a 289 with dual exhaust and four on the floor? Or was that just a dream? Is that why you're restoring a classic Mustang now? With PUI original reproduction parts, you can make your Mustang interior everything it was . . . again.

PUI interior parts are authentic reproductions, patterned from original Mustang parts and made to match the original specs for material and color. Authentic right down to the French seams, the top stitching and the vinyl grain, PUI has parts that will bring back the glory of your Mustang ('65-'73).
