

Flame Job

Mark Coffey (MCA# 32901) is an obvious Mustang lover but he has also owned Coastal Car Stereo for over 8 years. So if you're wondering which is hotter, the Mustang, or its stereo, it just might be impossible to tell.

This air conditioned street driven Mustang has the goods to deliver 11 second quarter mile times and still let you listen to (make that, be blown away by) a stereo system that consists of as many trick brand names as you'll find in a Ford Motorsports catalog.

Speaking of tricks, a Paxton super-charger and a Nitrous Oxide system plus the usual engine add ons give this 302 "otherworld" like performance around town.

So far, Mark has only 'shown' his Mustang at three different events including Charlotte. He took first place in his class each time. Muscle Mustangs & Fast Fords magazine was impressed enough with this car to do a major color feature on it in their March '94 issue.

Hot Mustangs and hot music - how American can it get. No wonder the flame job on Mark's '89 GT was done in red, white and blue.

Mustang Savvy.
