FROM OUR PRESIDENT

I would like to start off this month by welcoming our newest regional group "Big Sky" Regional Group from Billings, Montana. Also a special welcome to our first lady president, Debbie Kaiser, of the "Big Sky" group. Any of you located in the Billings area are urged to contact Debbie or secretary/treasurer Jerry Vincent, 2007 South Billings Blvd., Space 68, Billings, MT 59101.

Please notice on this page that we now have official Mustang Club of America front license plates which are available from the National Headquarters for $3.00 each. The remaining Eastern National dash plaques will be available at $2.00 each.

A motion will be presented to the Board of Directors at the next meeting, May 27th, to add the following addition to the club's by-laws. It will read as follows:

"Any person or persons exhibiting cars, who publicly express disapproval of the judging at the meets, or who by acts of interference, shall be guilty of conduct unbecoming to an exhibitor, shall be disqualified at the present meet. They also shall be denied the right to enter any future meets sponsored by The Mustang Club of America. However; if an exhibitor has an objection to the judging of their entry, they may submit their protest, in writing, at the meet, or within twenty-four (24) hours after the meet. This protest shall be presented to an Officer or a member of the Board of
