Gold Card Judges Meet In Atlanta....

A special meeting for MCA Gold Card Judges was held the same day as the Officers Installation Dinner in January. Gold Card Judges from as far away as California attended.

This gathering was mainly an organizing session for the upcoming season. Time was also spent discussing various procedures and logistics for the MCA 20th Anniversary show.

General topics addressed were the Modified Judging Rules, the creation of special Saleen classes where the trophies will actually be supplied by the Saleen organization; and various incentives for Gold Card Judges that might in some small way help off set the emmense amount of time and energy these people devote to our hobby.

If you would like more information on becoming a Gold Card Judge, refer to the March '96 Mustang Times on page 33 under the heading "Judging Tests". Look for the model year that interests you, then simply contact the person listed. - RJ
