The historic Cocoa Village, located in Cocoa, Florida, was the perfect location to showcase vintage Mustangs for the 14th annual event hosted by the Space Coast Mustang Club.

The Space Coast Mustang Club recently hosted the 14th Annual Cocoa Village Mustang Show held November 3, 1996. Beautiful downtown Cocoa Village, which is an historic area with quaint gift and craft shops, served as the perfect backdrop for vintage to modern Mustang iron. The weather was picture perfect with clear skies and a delightful temperature of 70 degrees. The combination made for an outstanding show.

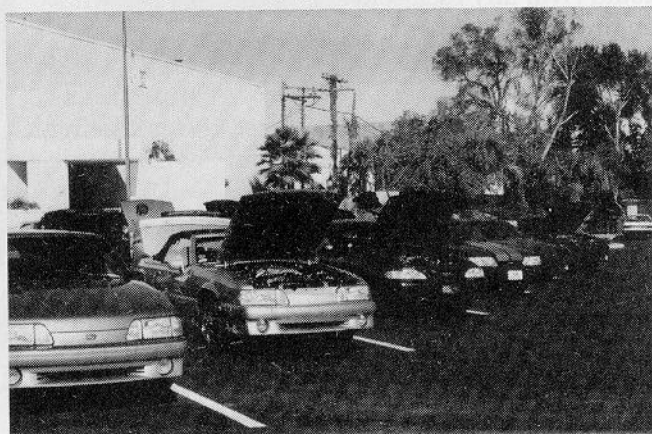

A total of 116 show cars, ranging from 1964 1/2 to brand new 1997 Mustangs along with various other Ford products, were on hand for the event. Even the pony corral featured a nice variety of vehicles. The streets of Cocoa Village have never looked so good.

This year's gathering was sponsored by Cocoa Mustang, a local Mustang restoration shop, and Wooten Ford, the local Ford/SVT dealer. As always, show participants were asked to bring an unwrapped toy for the Toys for Tots campaign allowing the Mustang hobby to give something back to children who are not as fortunate as others.

Comprised of first, second, third, and fourth generation Mustangs, 116 show vehicles lined the streets of the village. Mustangers have a big heart which was once again proved at this event when participants were asked to donate an unwrapped toy for the Toys for Tots campaign.

Competition Keen in Early Classes

No Mustang show would be complete without a lineup of early model convertibles. Competition was keen at this event in both the 1964 1/2-1966 and 1967-68 categories

The Central South Carolina Regional Group hosted their 19th annual Mustang show on October 6, 1996, at Granby Square in West Columbia, South Carolina. A total of 76 cars, all cleaned and polished to perfection, were entered in the available classes.

Entries from Mustang clubs located in Augusta, Georgia, Charleston, South Carolina, and Savannah, Georgia, were among that total count. These three clubs also gave the CSRG a strong show of support in the form of judges.

Competition was keen in all classes, particularly the 1964 1/2 - 1966 and 1967 - 68 classes. Thanks to the number of judges on hand the selection process went smoothly with trophies awarded on schedule. The Host's Award was presented to a beautiful red-on-red 1964 1/2 convertible owned by Rachel Garner of Rock Hill, South Carolina.

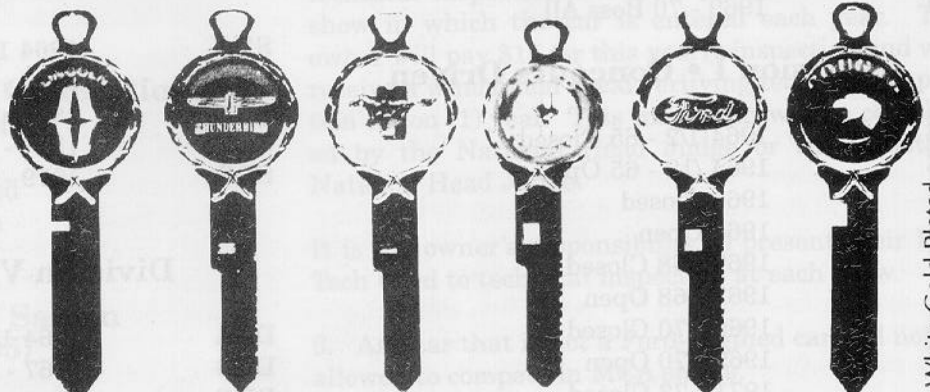

The officers and members of the Central South Carolina Regional Group wish to extend a heartfelt "thank you" to all those who had a hand in the success of this event.
