

Originally owned by a Ford Motor Company sales executive in the Charlotte district, Dwight Pardue of Wilkesboro, North Carolina, became the second owner of this Candyapple Red 1969 convertible. Additional equipment on the low-mileage beauty includes white power top, 351 4V, deluxe white interior, power disc brakes, and AM/8-track stereo.

Rescued from a Norfolk, Virginia, junkyard in 1973 for the astronomical sum of $100, owner Bob Pellerin of Virginia Beach, Virginia, has put 20 years worth of hard work and elbow grease into making this 1965 GT convertible an award winner. Equipment includes Pony interior, four-speed transmission, Rally Pac, factory air conditioning, and Styled Steel wheels.

