35th Anniversary Update

Plans have now kicked into high gear for the 35th Mustang Anniversary Celebration slated for April 1999.

During the weekend be on the lookout for clowns, a magician or two, and a well-known deputy sheriff from Mayberry.

The Friday night barbecue is a must-do on the list of weekend activities. In addition to enjoying regional culinary talents, Steve Saleen and Saleen Performance will be hosting an extravaganza which will feature live stage entertainment and a vast array of costume changes! Tickets for this fun-filled evening are only $8 per person (see registration form) with kids seven and under receiving free hot dogs.

If you missed out on the Saturday "Evening With Ford Dinner", don't despair. Plans are being finalized for interested participants to take a few laps around Charlotte Motor Speedway in their own Mustang! (Please note, this is not a part of the open track event.)

A live auction is planned for Sunday which promises to send those with winning bids home with some mighty unusual goodies!

Hotels are filling fast and car registrations are steadily increasing. Now that the regular show season is history, let's turn our attention to April 1999 and make plans now to attend the celebration of 35 years of Mustang madness.

A portion of the four-page show flyer appears in this issue on pages 18 and 19.

Mustangs in Motion

As has become customary with large Mustang events across the country, a caravan dubbed Mustangs in Motion Anniversary Pony Drive has been planned.

These cross-country driving events are a real treat and enable Mustang enthusiasts to not on travel in safe numbers, but to make new friends and visit various areas of the country.

If you are considering joining this 1999 caravan, please refer to page 16 for details.

Oops! Department

In our September 1998 issue we published "the advantages of membership and regional club affiliation" with the Mustang Club of America. Under individual benefits we listed numerous items including the discounted entry fee for MCA National and Grand National events.

Please note that the sentence should read "Entry fees at all National shows are discounted $10 for MCA members." We inadvertently listed the amount as a higher dollar figure.

We apologize for any confusion this has caused.

Judging Rules Meeting

The 1999 Judging Rules meeting has been scheduled to coincide with the officers and directors installation dinner to be held January 16, 1999. Watch for complete details for this meeting in the December 1998 edition of this magazine.

A reservation form for the installation dinner is published on page 12.
