PRESIDENTIAL CHALLENGE

The office phone rang this morning, as I always want it to. The voice on the other end was full of enthusiasm and wit. It was one of my business associates, but his greeting caught me off guard. "What's happening Mr. Mustang?" "Does it really show that much," I asked innocently? "Sure does, and that's what makes it fun to talk with you." Then, away we went to the matters at hand.

I must admit that I am guilty of a serious case of MUSTANG PASSION. I get so excited about my hobby that I want to share it, talk about it, and show it off. There are car pictures on my desk, and trinkets and trophies here and there.

If you enjoy the Mustang Hobby, and if you enjoy the Mustang Club of America, I have a challenge for you: I challenge every member of the MCA to invite one person to become a new member in 2008.

You have friends and acquaintances that enjoy the Mustang, don't you? You have relatives who are always asking questions about your car! You have a brother or a sister, an aunt or an uncle, maybe even a grandparent or a grandchild who are just waiting for someone to invite them to join MCA. Be the spark that "lights their fire." In fact, you could even give them their first year as a gift.

It is not just what the MCA offers new members. It's the fact that someone who cares about them asked them to join. Make it a testimonial. Tell them what you enjoy about the MCA or the Mustang. Maybe it is the great articles in the Mustang Times, or the latest information from Ford and Mustang sources. Perhaps it is the Regional and National Mustang Shows. Or, could it be your growing excitement about the 45th Anniversary of the introduction of the Mustang next April 2009? Show them a trophy. Give them a big smile, even offer to dance like Snoopy. After all, even a Beagle named UNO won this years' Best of Show at The Westminster Kennel Club Dog Show. You, too, can be a winner.

Just reach out your hand with an application form and a pen. Or, fill in an application form and make a gift. And if you don't have one of the colorful new application forms for MCA, just copy this page and use the form below or the form on page 57 in this magazine.

YES, I want to join the fastest growing organization in the world dedicated to the preservation, car, history and enjoyment of the Mustangs. Enclosed is full payment for my membership.
