Take the Challenge

Any ad can claim to be "the best", "the fastest", "the biggest" or "the cheapest"... Who do you trust more? Those ads or your peers? At NPD, we invite you to ask fellow restorers at shows, cruise-ins, online forums, shops, anywhere the hobby congregates, and put us to the test. Ask around and you'll find that advertised claims and gimmicks are one thing, and reputation throughout the hobby is quite another. You can't buy a good reputation.
