

KEEP THE LETTERS COMING

In the May issue, Ron Bramlett and Bill Birch, both active members of the MCA's National Board of Directors, posed interesting questions to everyone. Ron, who also serves as MCA's treasurer, posed a question about the validity of Boundaries for Regional clubs. Bill, who is Chairman of the Membership Committee, posed a question about what benefits you're looking for as a member of MCA. Both of these gentlemen have the best interest of the club in mind as they ask for your feedback.

I will not make a personal statement about either of these topics. I will, however, say that I'm thrilled that so many people have responded. More comments are coming in regarding the Boundary issue than Membership Benefits. However, I'm hoping to report differently next month.

I heard one comment that I felt compelled to respond to, however. Someone wrote to me commenting that we must be desperate for members if we're asking "What Can the MCA Do For You?" Nothing could be further from the truth.

As with any organization, we'd like to see the MCA grow, and certainly there's room for growth. Also, any organization worth its salt would want to hear from its members. And, sharing your requests, comments, joys, and disappointments is one way for the MCA's Board of Directors to know what direction you'd like to see the club grow. You know, it's not their club, it's YOUR CLUB! So, take a few minutes to send an email to membership@mustang.org and express your thoughts on what you'd like the MCA to do for you!

Mustang Times email addresses have changed. This information may seem redundant to many of you (if you read the entire magazine), but it can't be stated enough. Effective immediately, new email addresses for Mustang Times are:

editor@mustang.org
artdirector@mustang.org
publisher@mustang.org

Apologies to anyone who was not able to contact us, but this was sudden and could not be helped. If you emailed any of us on or after May 19th at the old email, those are floating around cyberspace somewhere. They will never reach us. So, please be kind and resend your email!

This issue is the first of several that will have coverage of the 45th Anniversary event. With an event of that magnitude, we felt it was prudent to show as much coverage as possible.

The first MCA National is a couple of weeks away. I hope that many of you have registered to attend. It's been a long time since we had a National show, and it's always nice to visit with old friends and make some new ones as well. Those of you who took the time to stop me and say hello in Birmingham—Thank You! I had almost no voice during that show, but I had a great time none-the-less.

So, once again, if you see me on a showfield, stop me and say hello.
