

Mary Jean,

I am the original owner of a 1994 Mustang GT.

I would like to find out how many Mustangs were built that year with the same color combinations that I have. Can you direct me to someone that can help me with this?

I did try to go through Ford customer service but they were not able to help me. I have heard that other people have been able to get this information but I do not know how.

Can you help?

I know that our members are the best resource when it comes to Mustang information. So, I'm posing this question to all of you. Let's see who will be the first to answer Tom's question?

Mary Jean,

I just got through reading Dean Hillestad's letter to you and I couldn't agree more with EVERYTHING he said. In fact, it was so complete I don't know what I can add, other than to say the BOD has to remove the boundary issue and move forward.

Thanks
Ron Roth

Mary Jean,

I have recently been approached by my fellow officers to investigate liability insurance to cover the club officers in the event of a law suit against the club. We are incorporated and I know that helps but

I was told that we are still liable if something happens. Can you steer me in the right direction to answer this question?

Thanks for your help.

Walt,

Ford Heacock and I had a discussion about this very topic just a few weeks ago.

Heacock Classic Insurance is the best place company to work with. They are really good to the MCA membership and to all the Regional Clubs and highly knowledgeable in all aspects of insuring your club and its officers.

Give them a call, toll free at 800.678.5173.

Mrs. Wesche,

Your editorial in the August 2009 issue made brief mention of the 50th celebration.

In reality, I had not given much thought about it, but your mentioning it got me to thinking. To me, the MCA powers that be should be considering only one place to celebrate the 50th, and despite the majority of Southern Board members, there can be only one place.

That would be my hometown, where the Mustang was conceived and born.... DEARBORN, MICHIGAN, no if, ands, or buts about it. I know many will disagree, and will use weather as an excuse, but it's a no-brainer to me.

I sold my last Mustang 2 years ago because of health issues. Just my 2 cents..

Brent,

There has been much discussion about the 50th Anniversary Celebration of the Mustang. And, I'm sure there will be much discussion well after the 50th comes and goes.

At this time, Ford Motor Company is discussing their plans for a location. They will engage in discussion with the Officers and Board of Directors of the MCA. And, when the decision is made, the word will spread quickly.

I wonder if everyone is as excited about the upcoming 35th Anniversary of the Mustang Club of America? That's a huge milestone for our club and one that will be celebrated in 2011.

I sure hope the excitement for that event begins to build as well. Planning and hosting a Celebration show of that magnitude is a big job. It's one that is in the planning stages already.

So, stay tuned for information on both of these events. I know the excitement for the 50th is growing, which is great to hear. It's also going to be a tough decision to make regarding location. But, just know that everything takes a lot of consideration and discussion. The outcome will prove it!
