HCMC Celebrates the 4th of July With a Mustang National.

The Heart of Carolina Mustang Club celebrated the 4th of July by hosting the American Stampede National at the North Carolina State Fairgrounds in Raleigh, North Carolina.

An Honor Guard from Seymour Johnson Air Force Base, comprised of Senior Airman David Baker of Greenville, NC, and Airman Daniel O'Callaghan of Xenia, OH, opened the ceremonies with a flag raising.

At 5pm on Friday, after a day of Classification, registration, and the requisite cleaning, many Mustangs owners participated in an evening "Cruise to the Capital" cruise-in. Local law enforcement blocked off the first three blocks of Fayetteville Street, the main street through downtown Raleigh.

In 1979, Vera Lawrence ran a notice in a local newspaper announcing an organizational meeting for a Mustang club. Thus began the Heart of Carolina Mustang Club. Vera's '66 Mustang was displayed in front of the club's booth. On Saturday, Mrs. Lawrence and members of her family attended the show on Saturday. As part of the Heart of Carolina Mustang Club's 30th Anniversary, Vera was honored as the club's founder.

Saturday was jam packed with activities. Outside the air-conditioned Kerr Scott Building, which held more than 150 Mustangs, the MCA and HCMC clubs booths were manned; Crossroads Ford had several 2010 Mustangs and GT500s on display; John Clor was signing his book, "Mustang Dynasty;" Heacock Classic had a booth; and Steve Hall set up the MCA merchandise booth.

In a second-floor room of the Kerr Scott Building, several computers were set up for those wishing to take a Judges' test. Anyone interested in MCA's Judging was able to have their questions answered by the National Head Judges.

Having the show field split in half with a vendor area in the middle was a great idea. There was plenty of traffic in and out of the vendor area all weekend.

The Judges' Meeting was held on Saturday morning. Gold Cards were awarded to Jeff Deaton, Daryle Damschroder, Dan Trapp, and JP Webber.

National Head Judges Charles Turner and Allen Stewart gave instructions and answered various questions before sending the volunteer judges out into the show fields.

Adjacent to the show field, the Raleigh Flea Market is held each Saturday and Sunday with more than 600 vendors. Many took advantage of the benches and shaded eating areas during the weekend.

John Clor, Ford Performance Group Communications Manager, was the show's guest speaker. At 3pm on Saturday, John spoke about his book, "Mustang Dynasty," and happenings at Ford Motor Company.

The 4th of July would not be complete without fireworks. Raleigh's Parks and Recreation Department, in conjunction with the NC State Fair, hosted activities which began at 5pm, with a huge fireworks show at 9:15.

On Sunday, due to the threat of rain, the awards ceremony was held inside the Kerr Scott Building. No one complained either, as the building is air conditioned.

Gold watches were awarded to Wanda Whitsell and Gail Stewart for their hard work in the Tally Room at each National and Grand National show.

HCMC President Steve Hernandez thanked everyone for attending show. He then introduced Show Chairman Chip Hill who announced and awarded the trophies.

One last note, HCMC member Brian Soles designed the show logo. It is beautiful and he is to be congratulated.

Log onto www.hcmcmustangs.com and click on the show logo, you'll be treated to a video of the show created by another talented HCMC member, Erica Oakley.

It takes countless volunteers to host a National show. It seemed as though every member of HCMC volunteered in some capacity. Everyone was friendly and helpful.

Congratulations to all the members of the HCMC, especially to their National Show Committee for a great event. Well done! MT

Classification had a steady line Friday and Saturday.

Steve Hall set up the MCA's merchandise tent.

Registration was also a busy place on Friday and Saturday.
