

MUSTANGS AT THE MANSION NATIONAL UPDATE

The Mustangs at the Mansion National is sold out for Mustangs. Registered spectator registration will open on the Blue Ridge Mustang Club of Asheville's website the first week of April and a form will appear in the May issue of Mustang Times.

A registered spectator means that anyone interested in spending the weekend in Asheville and at the Biltmore, viewing more than 400 Mustangs, and enjoying top-notch entertainment can register for tickets for the Biltmore ($30 per person good for 4 days, regular price is $55 per day), the Friday evening private dinner and concert by Blues legend The Sauce Boss on the Biltmore Estate for $40 per person, and the Saturday night private dinner and entertainment provided by the Pink Flamingos for $30 per person. Tickets to these evening events are limited, so reserve yours today!

The aforementioned evening activities will be held at the new Diana facility, directly overlooking the Biltmore house, which will be illuminated for a view rarely seen by the general public.

EARLY MUSTANG CLUB OF COLORADO EARNS EAGLE ONE GOLDEN RULE AWARD

Practicing the Golden Rule has earned the Early Mustang Club of Colorado the coveted Eagle One Golden Rule Award and grand prize for conducting the most outstanding community service program in its region during 2009.

The grand prize was a $1,500 cash donation from Eagle One and associate sponsor Valvoline to a charity selected by the club. The honor was earned for the most compassionate achievement among the four winning car clubs.

Three other car clubs were honored for providing exemplary support to community and charitable causes. The three other winners received $500 cash donations to favorite charities, a generous supply of Eagle One car-care products and Valvoline motor oil for fund-raising purposes, and a custom-designed plaque.

The Denver club went national with its service program donating $25,000 to the Freedom Alliance Scholarship Fund which provides scholarships to children of servicemen who were killed or permanently disabled while serving our country. The Denver club donated the $1,500 to the Fund.

"For the past 17 years Eagle One has been proud to reward car clubs for the commendable work they do in their communities while actively engaged in the preservation of one of our country's greatest heritages, the automobile," said Rob McCarter, Eagle One brand manager.

DID YOU KNOW.....

- That the Heart of Carolina Mustang Club recently visited the Wounded Warriors Battalion East at Camp Lejeune in North Carolina and presented them with a check from the American Stampede National Show they hosted last July for $10,000?
- That Mickey Matus of Ford Racing will be the guest speaker prior to lunch and awards on Sunday at the Asheville, NC, Mustangs at the Mansion National Show in September?
- That an interview with MCA President Steven McCarley will run in the next issue of Mustang Magazine?
- That you can help the MCA save money by renewing your membership four months before your membership expires?
- That Hurst Performance signed Galpin Ford on to its Dealer Authorized network to sell Hurst Competition Plus, Performance Series, and Pace Car Mustangs?
- That the next Board of Directors' meeting of the MCA will be held on April 10th in Dallas, Texas, and is open to all MCA members?
- That there is a listing of all MCA Board Committee Chairmen with their contact information in each issue of Mustang Times, on page 66?
- That the latest MCA apparel line is available through, the MCA's website, www.mustang.org?
- That within the next few months, a new member survey will be printed within the pages of Mustang Times? It's our own version of the 2010 Census, but a whole lot more fun to answer!
- That the vacant Board position was recently filled by Chris Hall from Ottsville, PA?
- That a Lark Bragg Memorial Award will be given out at National Shows in 2010?

THANK YOU, NORTH TEXAS MUSTANG CLUB

The MCA's Board of Directors wishes to express their gratitude to Mark Powell, Phil Sweeney, and the membership of the North Texas Mustang Club for all the assistance provided with planning locations for Board meetings. The Board meetings have been held at various locations in the Dallas area, including the Sam Pack Museum.

Your assistance with locations, hotels, and various arrangements has been invaluable.
