

Hi Mary Jean,

I've been a proud member of the MCA since forever, and would just like to say that the club has never been better. Kudos to all involved... Nice job!

Awesome job also on the articles about the 2011 Mustangs. They were great reads. FYI, I am also the Founder of StangBangers.com, a Mustang enthusiast website which has been serving up premium Mustang content since 2000. Tomorrow, I will be taking the train into Manhattan to pick up a 2011 Mustang V6 "MCA Edition," which Ford PR is graciously giving me for four days to test-drive. I can't wait!

I am so glad that Ford is embracing the enthusiast and recognizing the impact we can have via our websites, clubs, social media channels, etc.

Question regarding the "Friends Of The MCA" Program: I understand that it's $150 per year for a listing, but will the contributor be recognized monthly as in 12 times a year, or monthly as in for one month?

Thanks,
Nev

Hey Nev,

Thanks for the nice comments about the direction of the MCA. The Board of Directors work hard to make the club better and better.

The Friends of the MCA Program is open to businesses and individuals alike. The donation of $150 is for 12 consecutive months. The donor's information appears on the Club Benefits page for 12 months.

Thank you for your interest in the MCA and the Members program and Let us know your impressions of driving the MCA Edition!

Hi Mary Jean,

As a MCA member, I await each issue of the Mustang Times with great enthusiasm.

The latest issue was excellent. I did notice in one of the readers comments the mention of the Ford X-Plan. Is this plan available to MCA members?

If so, how does one get the pin number needed to get the discounts?

Thanks,
Dave

Hello Mary Jean,

I just read the April BOD minutes which were posted on the Member's Only section of the MCA site. I read where if a member "opts out" of receiving Ford Racing's emails and correspondence, they will not be eligible for the X-Plan benefit.

I don't have an issue with this but was wondering if there is going to be an article in Mustang Times that goes into more detail on the new X-Plan benefit for members.

For example, I have no idea if Ford has sent me emails which were picked up as Junk Mail and deleted automatically and therefore I am not eligible for the plan. How can a member check and get back on Ford's mailing list IF they have either on purpose or by accident opt out.

Hopefully there will be an article with all the details. The X-Plan info in the minutes was the first I had heard of this requirement.

Thanks for your time regarding this.

Hello Ed,

I understand your dilemma, especially when I saw your email address. I spoke to the wonderful people who generate the Ford Racing emails. They said that they are fully aware many members' email providers will send their email to their "junk mail" because it's an unsolicited email blast. They also understand that there are many MCA members who do not use email at all. This does not exclude any current MCA member from receiving the X-Plan.

Once you opt out of an email from Ford, you must go back into their website and re-register:

www.1fordracing.com/fordracing/

The X-Plan information has been explained in recent issues of Mustang Times. However I must not have done a good enough job of explaining the program. So to you and all the other wonderful MCA members, I apologize.

Please read the "News and Notes" department of this issue on page 18 where the X-Plan program is fully explained.

Thank you for your email letter. If something that is a huge benefit to the membership is not clear, I apologize and appreciate the chance to correct the situation.

I hope this helps you. If you do purchase a new vehicle utilizing the X-Plan, please let me know which Ford vehicle you purchased.
