

A Christmas Lament

The days are getting shorter
 The snow is on the ground,
 I know it's getting closer
 To when Santa comes to town.

Last year instead of slippers
 Or a toaster or a robe,
 Santa left me red lines,
 And a fender and a bulb.

Could have sworn I asked him not to bring
 A bumper, steering wheel or retainer ring.
 And when I set down on his lap
 I won't request a GT gas cap.

I wonder what I need this year,
 Maybe a pony grill, trunk lid or inner door seal.
 One thing's for sure, I won't be ignored
 But truly hope next year, my Mustang's restored.
