

PONY PLATES

A REAL 1 refers to Clay Holland's 1966 Shelby GT 350. Out in Alabaster, Alabama, the car constantly inspires the question, "Is it a real one?"; and the tag is Clay's answer. SPECIAL is on his 1968 California Special. Bob Janssen of Fairhope, Alabama, sent the Y-237 New York World's Fair plate, saying that it was issued in 1964 to commemorate the opening of the New York World's Fair. It was used again the next year, being validated by the red sticker. Since that time, the plate has been in storage until this year. Larry Fincher of Hogansville, Georgia got his TNT plate right over the counter at the license plate office; he says it fits his 1968 fastback rather well. K-STANG naturally belongs to Karen Williams of Pompano Beach, Florida, and her 1966 red pony.
