

In 1964 when the Mustang was the newest kid on the block, everyone was concerned with keeping up with the Joneses. Of course, back then the two-car family was just coming of age. Today everyone is encouraged to be an individual. But today more than ever, we are style conscious. Everyone, including the kids, are wearing their designer jeans that cost a small fortune and their Nike tennis shoes not to mention the Izod shirts that complete the outfit.

These designers have even spilled over into the automobile industry with the Bill Blass edition Lincoln or the Barritz Cadillac. But know one is more in style than the driver of a classic Mustang wearing his or her old Levis. Whether it is a Sunday drive or a night on the town, your Mustang, Boss or Shelby will certainly make sure you arrive in style! So, if you haven't been stylish in the past, now is your golden opportunity.
