

E. W. Kessinger of Sacramento, California, is the second owner of this '68 Fastback. E. W. believes driving a Mustang is the best way to enjoy it, and he has really enjoyed this one — over 125,000 miles worth! This rare bench seat Fastback has a 289, air, and power steering. E. W. is a member of the MCA, Sierra Mustang Club, Reno Mustang Club, Mt. Diablo Mustang Club and the California Vehicle Foundation.

James Cantrell of Flat Gap, Kentucky is the proud owner of this completely restored '66 coupe. Driven on sunny days, this Kentucky pony is equipped with 289-2V and automatic. With the exception of radio and exhaust, this Signalflare Red coupe is original stock.

Complete Mustang Parts Store and

The lack of regional groups in his area doesn't keep Jay Martinez of Copeland, Kansas from enjoying his 1969 Mach I. This Oxford Gray beauty is equipped with 428CJ, front and rear spoilers, "Shaker" hood, tilt wheel and fold down rear seat. Jay bought the Mach I from its original owner (his brother) in 1976.

First Pennsylvania Mustang Club President Dale Bowes owns this 1967 convertible. This green '67 is a daily driver.