

According to retired paint and body man Nick Niblong of Almont, Michigan, the only original part of his 1964½ Mustang convertible is the GLASS! This Candyapple Red beauty is equipped with 289, automatic, and power steering, brakes, and top.

This Mustang coupe is William Tucker's pride and joy. Canisteo, New York is home to this 31,000 mile all original pony.

No, all Mustangs aren't "Show Ready". Most of them start out like this 1969 Mach I 428SCJ. Owner Regina Oliver of Paterson, New Jersey is in the process of restoring this classic muscle car.

Brisbane, Australia is home to this string of Mach I's. John and Pauline Binge own these ponies. They are: (l to r) 1973 Mach I, 351-4V, C-6 automatic, Metallic Blue with custom interior; 1971 Mach I, 351-4V Ram Air, 43,000 miles, all original; 1973 Mach I, 351-2V, AiResearch Turbocharger, approximately 440 HP. All of these ponies are driven as often as possible by the Binge family.
