

“Just a little bit of Boss” resides in Hanover, Pennsylvania. Michael Warner modified his '72 Sportsroof with acrylic enamel paint, velour interior inserts, detailed engine chrome, front and rear spoilers, louvers, and ET Turbo wheels. The 351C-2V is still going strong after 85,000 miles.

Bill and Pat Blalock of Canton, North Carolina are proud owners of this 1964½ coupe. This fully optioned pony includes 289-4V “D” engine, automatic, air, luggage rack, wire wheel covers, and perfect Palamino interior.

Joe Griffin's 1970 Mach I is powered by a 351C and 4-speed. Its black paint and all original black interior make for a "Black Beauty". This all original Mustang calls Greensboro, North Carolina home.

Ramsey, New Jersey is home to this 1972 Mach I. John Siemsen restored the exterior of this beauty, and son Andrew cleaned up the 302 under the hood.
