

It took Tom Dugan three years to complete this bogus Shelby GT350. This pony includes all Shelby parts, right down to the 289-HIPO. Lawrenceville, Georgia is home to all these ponies.

New MCA member David Hardy says he could "go on all night" about his 1966 coupe. It sports Emberglow paint, white vinyl roof, parchment and Ivy Gold pony interior, automatic, power steering, original AM-8 track, power brakes, wire wheel covers, and original owner's manual and card. This pony and proud owner call Arabi, Louisiana home.

Palm Harbor, Florida is home to this all original 1967 Shelby GT-500. Ed Adams' pony features a potent 428 with C-6 automatic and power steering and brakes.

Kenny Chesterfield of Milwaukie, Oregon owns the modified '65 coupe.